

VEGETABLES COSTA RICA, COUNTRY FULL OF FLAVOR AND COLOR

Products such as carrots, chayote, cabbage, and squash are a small sample of the freshness and flavor of the vegetables produced in Costa Rica. An enviable geographical location and a wide variety of microclimates allow a large export offer, supported by fair and sustainable agricultural production.

Features

Vegetables represent $ 157.4 millions dollars in total exports, and more than half of these products were destined for the United States.

Vegetables grown in Costa Rica travel to numerous destinations to be served and enjoyed throughout North America, Europe and the Caribbean, as a source of antioxidants, fiber and vitamins for a healthy life.

Why buy from Costa Rica?
